Dear Parent/ guardian(s),

It's competition time!

To encourage our children to continue to read over half term, we are holding an exciting competition! All you need to do is encourage your child(ren) to read and take a photograph of them reading in the most unusual or strangest place they can think of. They could read upside down, with their pet, out on a walk, inside, outside or any other wacky place you can think of...the possibilities are endless!

Photos are to be brought into school by Friday 23rd February or emailed directly to: admin.holyfamilyprimary@schools.sefton.gov.uk

You could also post to twitter using the @HolyFamilyCP handle and the hashtags: #HolyFamilyReading #StrangestplaceIhavereadabook

All entries will then be judged by the Governors and prizes awarded. This competition will be judged in 3 categories: Early Years and Key Stage 1 (Rec Y1, Y2), Key Stage 2 (Y3, Y4, Y5, Y6) and a staff prize.

We are looking forward to seeing all the weird and wonderful places that you can come up with so get creative and get reading!

Thank you for your support,

Mrs Keen
