Homework

Your homework this week is to log onto TT Rockstars and refamiliarise yourself with all your times tables. I would like everyone to complete a 'soundcheck'. This is 25 questions on multiple times tables. You have 6 seconds to answer each question.

Remember that as well as this short homework task, we expect that you will read at least 3 times for a minimum of 15 minutes during a week. Ensure that your reading record is signed throughout the week by a grown up and handed in on Friday morning. You may change your book as many times as you need through the week but your diary must confirm that you have finished the text.

Have a wonderful Weekend,
