

Holy Family Catholic Primary School.

Friday 2nd May 2025

We have had lovely Stay & Prays in school this week. It has been our turn on the field and the sun has been shining for us! Please send your love and prayers for our Y4 children, who are making their First Holy Communion tomorrow. God bless.

Attendance & Punctuality:

Year 5 has the best attendance this week with 97.58% they are also the class with the best punctuality.

Breakfast Clubs for schools....

We have researched the new government offer but unfortunately, we are not eligible. If you require childcare before school please contact The Frantastic Club.

Sun, sun, sun.....

We hope that the glorious weather continues! Please remember to apply lots of sun tan lotion to your child in the morning as we are unable to apply it in school. Please also remember sun hats or caps and a water bottle.

VE Day Celebrations: Thursday 8th May

A letter has come home today about the celebrations that will be going on in school – next Thursday 8th May, to mark the 80th anniversary of VE Day – Victory in England, the end of the Second World War.

The letter can be viewed at:

The Religious Life of School:

We have had some beautiful, well-attended 'Stay and Prays' this week. Thank you if you managed to attend.

A reminder that tomorrow, Saturday 3rd May, our Y4 children will be making their First Holy Communion at 10.30am. A big thank you to Mrs Carey, Mr Davies, Fr Kevin & the catechists for all of their hard work preparing the children so well. This is such a memorable event for all of the family.

May we all wish them well.
