Remembrance

This weekend is Remembrance Sunday. Mass in Church is at 9.30am and 11am if you would like to attend. We have been buying poppies this week to help us remember and to help us raise money for The Royal British Legion. We still have plenty of reflectors and poppies left, just pop to the office if you want any.

Tuesday
12th
November

Odd socks day is next Tuesday. Children should wear their normal school uniform but with odd socks – the brighter the better!

Today we said goodbye to 2 of our amazing TAs. Mrs Almulla is leaving for pastures new after almost 20 years and I'm sure you'll join us in wishing her well for the future.

Mrs Jackson-Dawson is starting her maternity leave so will be back in a few months, I'm sure you'll join us in wishing her an easy arrival and calm few weeks with her new baby.

A massive THANK YOU to everyone who donated shoes boxes or items to fill the boxes for the underground school in Ukraine. They were collected today along with some larger items that had been donated. We're hoping to make a real difference.

Y2 trip

Year 2 thoroughly enjoyed their trip to Bring Yer Wellies this week, they build and burnt London to support their work on the Great Fire of London and explored lots of different herbs
